

Dear Supporter of NCSLA,

The North Carolina Surplus Lines Association Annual Convention will be March 19-21, 2025, at the Grandover Resort in Greensboro, North Carolina. We will be hosting a three-hour reception the evening of the 19th at the Grandover.

This convention is a time for our members and associate company members to get together to network and be brought up to speed on current industry news.

In addition, this year the NCSLA will be hosting the WSIA Surplus Lines Law Group Meeting on Friday, March 21, 2025. This meeting will be attended by most of the national surplus lines stamping offices and company representatives.

Our association membership includes over 60 NC based wholesale agencies and over 4,000 NC surplus lines members. We are proud of our strong membership, and we expect a good turnout at the Grandover. We would love for you to join us and send other company representatives as well.

In order for us to put on a quality convention as planned, we need your help.

We certainly hope you will join us and/or seriously consider sponsoring this very important event. Feel free to contact us with any questions at contact@ncsla.com
